HOSTETTER'S

STOMACH -- HBITTERS

HE TOOK THE CHEESE.

HE TOOK THE CHEESE.

A Terrier That Was Supposed to Be a Ratter, But Proved a Disappointment.

"Willis Sweatnam," said a friend of that comedian, relates the New York Sun, "has an exceedingly fine-bred fox terrier. She has great fame as a ratter. She had a litter of puppies, the father of which was also of royal pedigree and of fame as a ratter as great as that of their mother, so that when Willis gave me one of the puppies, a beautiful little chap, all nerves and blood, I was proud.

"I would hate to be a rat anywhere in this neighborhood," said I, "when this pedigreed pup gets a few months more age on him."

"The pup grew and thrived. He was the handsomest dog of his kind one ever saw—restless, eager and evidently impatient to get among a lot of rats somewhere and chew them up.

"I was equally eager for him to have the opportunity, but there were no rats at our house, and I couldn't hear of any among the neighbors, all of whom were alive with interest in my pup and anxious to aid him in filling what all believed was his impatient yearning for rats. At last, one day one of these neighbors sent me the glad tidings that he had trapped a rat on his premises—a great, big, gray fellow—and told me to fetch out the pup and let him work off at least a little of his pent-up longing by taking a whack at this big rat.

"I was delighted, and yet sorry that there was only one rat for my pup to tackle. The news quickly spread that my pup was going to have a chance at last to kill a rat, and when I took him out to meet my neighbor with the rat everybody was there to see.

"The rat was in a wire cage along with the big piece of cheese that had lured him to his pending ruin. The neighbor who had trapped him set the trap on the ground. The dog dashed at it, and his eagerness to get into it just about tickled our spectators all but behind holding themselves.

"He's the stuff!" was the unanimous and delighted comment on his manifestations of impatience to get to work.
"Too bad there ain't a dozen or two of them big rats for him to get rid of some of his enthusiasm on."

"All this time the dog was trying to get into the trap, he was so eager, and the rat had crouched down in terror at sight of him.

"He sees his finish, that rat does, sure enough," cried the spectators.
"It'll be just a snap and a crunch, and all over."

"The neighbor who had trapped the rat was so excited that he fumbled and fumbled at the trap and couldn't get it open. I took it, opened it, and turned it up to shake the rat out. The dog dashed about quivering in nervous expectancy.

"Stand back!" said the spectators.
"Give the little dandy room!"
"They stood back. I shook the trap.
Out tumbled the rat and the big piece of cheese.

"The eager pup sprang forward.
There was a snap and a grab, and the pup's teeth fastened on to the big piece of cheese, and away he went with it for home as fast as his legs could carry him.

"The frightened rat gazed after him a moment, and then scurried back to the house of the neighbor who had trapped it, and is there yet, I guess.
There wasn't much said among the spectators for awhile, but they looked at one another, and at last one said:

"Too bad there wasn't a dozen or so of rats instead of only just one. The pup might have got more cheese!"

"Then we all went home. And the relations between me and that dog of high degree have been strained ever since."

OUT OF THE ORDINARY.

A large batch of Missouri officials have been indicted for playing penny ante on a fishing trip.

Oaths are said to be coming into popularity again in London society, after a century, golf and ping-pong being responsible for the revival.

One of the batsmen in a recent cricket match at Thomas Ditton drove a ball hard into the long field, where it struck a thrush which had just settled, killing it instantly.

Dr. Isaac E. Emerson, the noted Baltimore physician, who has been making a tour of the world, will arrive home about the middle of June. His yacht, the Margaret, was the first that ever visited Bombay, India, and Dr.
Emerson was the first American to be elected a member of the Royal Yacht club of Bombay.

The ping-pong fad is responsible for much, and now we have the ping-pong kleptomaniac. In the Waldorf-Astoria ping-pong gallery the other night a young man in evening dress was playing. His frequent calling for new balls aroused the attention of an attendant, who at last saw him deftly slip a ball into his coat pocket.
Then the attendant called a house detective.

An attempt to climb the highest Himalayas will be made this year by a party consisting of three Englishmen, two Austrians and a Swiss, Dr. Jacot-Guillemard. They are accompanied by Swiss guides. They will begin with the Godwin Austen, 28,250 feet high, and Dapsang, 28,665 feet high. If they are successful they will then try Mount Everest, the highest mountain in the world, 29,000 feet high. The Himalaya record is held by Sir Martin Conway who climbed the Pioneer Peak, 21,000 feet high, ten years ago.

"Yes," said Archie, "I should admire to be a soldier, to carry a sword and gun and lead my men through fastnesses in the mountains, where the enemy lie concealed two to our one, and we would die like heroes with our boots on."

"Archie," said his mother, "go into the woodshed and get an armful of kindling."

"Will you hold the light, mamma?"
"What do you want of a light?" inquired his mother.

"I'm a-i-r-a-i-d."—Chicago Record.

EDMUNDS
ACT TEXTThe Federal Law That Runs in Territory
Of Hawaii.

What is the Edmunds Act? It is an amendment passed by the 49th Congress at its second session, 1887, to an act entitled, "An Act to amend Sec.
5352 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, in reference to bigamy, and for other purposes," approved March 22, 1882.

Part of the act refers specifically to Utah, but the rest is law in all of the territories of the United States. The following are the general provisions of the law, omitting those relating to procedure in enforcing it:

"Sec. 3. That whoever commits adultery shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding three years; and when the act is committed between a married woman and a man who is unmarried, both parties to such act shall be deemed guilty of adultery; and when such act is committed between a married man and a woman who is unmarried, the man shall be deemed guilty of adultery.

"Sec. 4. That if any person related to another person within and not including the fourth degree of consanguinity computed according to the rules of the civil law, shall marry or cohabit with, or have sexual intercourse with such other so related person, knowing her or him to be within said degree of relationship, the person so offending shall be deemed guilty of incest, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than three years and not more than fifteen years.

"Sec. 5. That if an unmarried man or woman commit fornication, each of them shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars."
